

This Bible study declares from scripture that there is not one resurrection, but seven, which is God's number of completeness. The picture begins in Leviticus 23 and carries us to I Corinthians 15. It shows us that God's resurrection program is in three divisions, and includes seven companies of people.

7 RESURRECTIONS

